Re: FOIA Request NLRB-2023-000212

Dear Mr. Jakob Cordes (WRIC.com):

This is in response to your request, under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), 5 U.S.C. § 552, received on October 26, 2022, in which you seek the RD Order filed 8/15/2022, the Answer to Complaint filed 8/23/2022, and the RD Order filed 10/26/2022 for Starbucks Corporation, Case No. 05-CA-296459. You did not assume financial responsibility for processing your request.

We acknowledged your request on October 26, 2022.

A search of the Agency's electronic casehandling system, NxGen, has been conducted. This search has located the requested records, which are attached.

After a review, I have determined that portions of the attached records are exempt from disclosure under Exemptions 6 and 7(C) of the FOIA (5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6) and (b)(7)(C)). Specifically, redactions have been made to protect the sensitive privacy interests of individuals named in the records. These redactions were made pursuant to FOIA Exemption 6, which pertains to information the release of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, and FOIA Exemption 7(C), which pertains to records or information compiled for law enforcement purposes, the release of which could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6) and (b)(7)(C).

Your request is further denied to the extent that certain responsive records which are part of the investigative file in this open case, including the attachments to the October 26, 2022 Regional Director's Order Referring Petitions to Revoke Subpoenas Duces Tecum to the Administrative Law Judge, are being withheld, as they exempt from disclosure pursuant to Exemption 7(A) of the FOIA. 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(7)(A). Exemption 7(A) allows an agency to withhold records included in an open investigatory file where disclosure could reasonably be expected to interfere with enforcement proceedings. See NLRB v. Robbins Tire & Rubber Co., 437 U.S. 214, 236 (1978). Given the open status of the case and the resultant harm that could reasonably occur with disclosing investigatory case file records while the proceedings are ongoing, I am withholding any such records in full at this time.

Please be advised that Exemption 7(A) protection is “temporal in nature.” Citizens for Responsibility & Ethics in Wash. v. Dep’t of Justice, 746 F.3d 1082, 1097 (D.C. Cir 2014) (citing NLRB v. Robbins Tire, 437 U.S. 214, 223-24 230-32 (1978)). That is, case file records may become disclosable, subject to applicable exemptions, after the case closes, a certification of results has issued, a bargaining representative has been certified, or the matter is otherwise closed under Agency procedures. Accordingly, you may wish to file a new request at that time.

The status of this case can be tracked on the Agency website at www.nlrb.gov by going to the Cases & Decisions tab, clicking case search, entering the case number in the search box and viewing the case page or by clicking the link here: www.nlrb.gov/search/case/05-CA-296459.

For the purpose of assessing fees, we have placed you in Category C, as a representative of the news media, in that you qualify as a person “actively gathering news for an entity that is organized and operated to publish or broadcast news to the public.” NLRB Rules and Regulations, 29 C.F.R. § 102.117(d)(1)(vii). Accordingly, there is no charge assessed for this request.

You may contact William T. Hearne, the FOIA Attorney-Advisor who processed your request, at (202) 273-0139 or by email at william.hearne@nlrb.gov, as well as the Agency’s FOIA Public Liaison, for any further assistance and/or to discuss any aspect of your request. The FOIA Public Liaison, in addition to the FOIA Attorney-Advisor, can further explain responsive and releasable agency records, suggest agency offices that may have responsive records, and/or discuss how to narrow the scope of a request in order to minimize fees and processing times. The contact information for the FOIA Public Liaison is:

Any appeal must be postmarked or electronically submitted within 90 calendar days of the date of this letter. Any appeal should contain a complete statement of the reasons upon which it is based.

Please be advised that contacting any Agency official (including the FOIA Specialist, Attorney-Advisor, FOIA Officer, or the FOIA Public Liaison) and/or OGIS does not stop the 90-day appeal clock and is not an alternative or substitute for filing an administrative appeal.

Sincerely,

/s/ Synta E. Keeling
